

PHILEMON

1. Who directed the letter to Philemon? _____ It was directed to _____, to _____, to _____, and to the _____ in _____'s house.
2. Two things indicate that Philemon was a man of means: his _____ was sufficiently large to accommodate the assemblies of the church, and he had _____ (v. 16).
3. Philemon lived in the city of _____ (Col. 4:9, by implication). _____ probably was his wife.
4. _____ was the object of _____'s continuous prayers.
5. Philemon had _____ and _____ toward the Lord Jesus Christ, and also toward whom else?
6. What was Philemon doing that showed his love and brought much joy and _____ to Paul?
7. Rather than _____ Philemon, Paul chose to _____ as he directs himself to Philemon.
8. From where did the authority come to which Paul refers in verse 8?
9. Who converted Onesimus to Christ?
10. Before his conversion Onesimus had been _____ to his master; now he is _____ for both Philemon and _____.
11. Paul sent Onesimus to his master. Paul requested of Philemon to receive Onesimus as he would receive _____ himself.
12. Onesimus would have been profitable in a personal way to Paul himself in Rome, but without the _____ of Philemon Paul would do nothing, for every favor should not be by _____, but be voluntary, or of free will.
13. In ver. 15, with what phrase does Paul allude to the Providence of God?
14. Now Onesimus was for Philemon more than a _____; he was also now a _____.
15. _____ made himself responsible for every debt that _____ might have had with Philemon. At the same time _____ had a spiritual debt to Paul.
16. Philemon's properly receiving Onesimus would bring to Paul's heart _____ and _____.
17. Paul had _____ in Philemon that he would do what was requested of him, and even _____.
18. Hoping to be able to visit him, Paul requested of Philemon that he _____ for him lodging; that is, a guest room.
19. Name five brethren who sent greetings to Philemon by Paul.
20. Which of these five later forsook Paul (2 Tim. 4:10)?