

Choosing Friends

1. Why must I choose my friends carefully: neighbors, co-workers, school mates (Prov. 12:26; 13:20; 22:24; 29:5)?
2. Does associating with someone mean that I am condoning their actions (Mt. 9:10-13; 11:19; Lk. 15:1-2)?
3. What value is there in having a friend (Eccl. 4:9-10; Amos 3:3; Lk. 10:1; Rom. 15:1)?
4. What can the wrong kind of friends can lead me to do (Judges 16:16; 2 Sam. 13:3-5; 1 K. 11:1-6; 12:13-14)?
5. What is necessary in being the right kind of friend to others (Prov. 18:24; 27:6, 9, 17)?
6. Why do I need to avoid the wrong kind of friends (Eccl. 10:1; 1 Cor. 15:33; Jas. 4:4)?
7. What must I do with friends who are wanting me to sin (Ex. 23:2; Psa. 1:1; Prov. 1:10-15; 4:14; 22:24-25; 24:1; 28:7)?
8. What must I not be concerned with (Mt. 5:11; Lk. 6:22)?
9. When I do what the Bible says I will be who's friend (Jn. 15:14; Jas. 2:23)?