

Jesus Is the Way

Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, but by me" (John 14:6). Let us consider how Jesus is the way.

Jesus is THE WAY OUT. He is the way out of the Old Law (Acts 13:38-39), the way out of sin (1 John 3:4; James 4:17; Romans 3:23; 6:23; James 2:10; John 3:16), the way out of temptation (Matthew 4:1ff; 6:13; 1 Corinthians 10:13), and the way out of religious confusion (John 17:4,20-21; Matthew 16:18; Ephesians 4:4-6).

Jesus is THE WAY IN. He is the way in to a new covenant (Hebrews 7-10), the way in to forgiveness (Matthew 26:27-28; 1 John 2:2; 4:10; Matthew 28:19-20; John 8:32,36), the way in to a new and better life (Romans 6:4; 2 Corinthians 5:17; John 10:10; Luke 12:15; Titus 3:3-7).

Jesus is THE WAY THROUGH. He is the way through sorrow and suffering (John 14:1; 1 Thessalonians 4:13; 1 Peter 4:12-19) and the way through anxieties and cares (Matthew 6:19ff; John 6:33).

Lastly, Jesus is THE WAY TO. He is the way to God (John 1:1-2, 14, 18; 6:46; 14:7; Colossians 1:15; 2:9; Hebrews 1:3; 4:14-16) and he is the way to eternal life in heaven (John 14:2-3; Revelation 21-22; Matthew 7:13-14; Acts 17:30-31).

Will you let Jesus lead you in the way? The way out of sin, the way in to a new life, the way through troubles, and the way to heaven? - Chris Reeves

- Thought of the Week -

I want to learn how brief my life really is and I want to be ready to meet my Lord when my time comes. I don't know exactly when my time will come, so I will make my life right with God right now, today! I will not assume that I have a long time to live. I will live for today only. (Note: Last Sunday night I had dinner with a fine Christian lady who was very upbeat and positive. On Monday she fell and broke both her ankles. She died yesterday. Indeed we are here one day and gone the next. - Chris Reeves)

THE WARFIELD BULLETIN

June 25, 2023

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh, for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses.
- 2 Corinthians 10:3-4 -

Dare To Be Daniel

The story of Daniel is both heroic and amazing. Here is a young man (accompanied by a few of his friends) who was removed many miles away from his family and homeland and he still remained faithful to God. He was transported from Jerusalem to Babylon, c. 605 B.C., and he never stopped being loyal to God.

When we are first introduced to Daniel in the book named after him, we notice that there are drastic changes for Daniel. Read Daniel 1:1-7. Daniel's country is changed, his name is changed, and most importantly, an attempt was made to change his culture (morals and religion). What was the key to Daniel's success? Why did he remain loyal and faithful to God? It was Daniel's attitude that kept him on the right course no matter where he went in life. We are told that Daniel "purposed in his heart that would not defile himself..." (Daniel 1:8). Let us examine the attitudes and actions of Daniel that made him successful both in man's eyes and God's eyes.

There is constant pressure from our society to conform to our culture (immodest dress, vulgar language, improper use of our body and mind, etc.). Will you, like Daniel, dare to be different? Will you dare to be a Daniel?

Daniel was a man of PREMI-NENCE. He was among the preeminent Dare to Be Daniel of the Israelites (Daniel

1:3-4) and he was among the preeminent of the wise men of Babylon (Daniel 1:17-20). How did Daniel handle his preeminence without losing his faith? He did not forget God, he glorified God, he thanked God, and he gave credit to God (Daniel 2:17-23,28). He also did not forget his fellow-brethren (Daniel 2:49). Christians today can be distinguished above others without losing their faith in God (1 Corinthians 16:23).

Daniel was a man of PURPOSE. He purposed in his heart (Daniel 1:8). He determined and made resolved ahead of time that he was going to do the right thing all the time. He did not live by the philosophy that says, "When in Rome (Babylon) live as the Romans (Babylonians)." Christians today can have the same purpose of heart to remain faithful at all times (Acts 11:23; Matthew 6:33).

Daniel was a man of POWER. He maintained a high position in the Babylonian government (Daniel 2:46-48; 5:29) and he maintained a high position in the Medo-Persian government (Daniel 6:1-3). Some say politics and religion do not mix. But, Daniel mixed the two without compromising his faith. Christians today can hold positions of power without losing their faith in God (Matthew 8:5ff; Ephesians 6:9; Colossians 4:1).

Daniel was a man of PURITY. There was no fault found in his life, before God or before men (Daniel 6:4,21). Christians today can maintain the same purity in the wicked world around them (Ephesians 5:27; James 1:27).

Daniel was a man of PRAYER. He had a habit of prayer (Daniel 6:10) and he had a humility in prayer (Daniel 6:10; 9:3ff). Christians today can pray with the same regularity and humility (1 Thessalonians 5:17-18).

Daniel was a man of PERSISTENCE. He served God continually (Daniel 6:16,20). Christians today can do the same (1 Corinthians 15:31; Acts 2:46).

Daniel was a man of PRINCIPLE. He refused to eat unclean food (Daniel 1:8ff), he refused to accept Belshazzar's gifts (Daniel 5:13ff), he refused to silence the truth (Daniel 4:20-27; 5:18-28), and he refused to obey the king's decree to stop praying to God (Daniel 6:4ff). Why was Daniel such a man of principle? "Because he had trusted in his God" (Daniel 6:23). Christians today can have the same conviction (Acts 5:29; Hebrews 11:6).

Daniel was a man of PROSPERITY. He prospered under the Medo-Persians (Daniel 6:28). Christians today can prosper without letting materialism and worldly affairs get in their way of serving God (Luke 12:20-21; 1 Timothy 6:6-10, 17-19).

Daniel's country was changed and his name was changed, but his heart toward God remained the same. Friend, no matter what changes you are experiencing in life, your faith toward God can remain unchanged. Dare to be Daniel! - Chris Reeves
