preaching because it was from the good Book. She would want all of us to desire the same Bible message in our life.

Luke 10:38-42

To the family of Maxine Bohler, I offer you my sincere condolences, and may the God of all comfort, comfort your hearts in him. Thank you again for letting me be a part of this memorial service.

Graveside:

Here is the patience of the saints, they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. And I heard the voice from heaven saying, Write, blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them - Revelation 14:12-13

Maxine - continued

May her body rest in peace, may her spirit rest with God, and may her family rest in the comfort Jesus Christ.

Maxine Bohler Funeral: 7/15/23

Obituary reading:

Ruthy Maxine “Noodle” Bohler, 78 years of age, passed away July 12, 2023, at Alive Hospice in Nashville, TN.

Ruthy was born October 4, 1944, in White Bluff, TN, to the late Garrett and Lois (West) Hall.

She was a loving mother and grandmother who loved gardening and spending time with her children. Noodle was very loving and nurturing and will be forever missed.

Welcome:

On behalf of the relatives of Maxine Bohler, I would like to thank everyone for coming this afternoon to remember her.

We are here this afternoon to pay our respects to this loved-one, Maxine Bohler, to comfort those who mourn, and to give glory to God with a reading from his word. It is an honor for me to spend some time talking about a fellow-Christian and about God’s word.

Priorities - Maxine wanted to keep attending church services in her old age. When she moved to Clarksville, I was impressed to see that she was still driving to church services. Years ago, she obeyed the gospel and was baptized into Christ. She attended the Acorn Hill congregation for many years. She would want all of us to have the same priorities.

Luke 2:36-38

Service - Maxine wanted to share her money with needy Christians in her old age. She gave her money to support my Ghana trip last year and she wanted to help a young Ghana woman continue her college education. She would want all of us to offer the same service to others.

Luke 8:1-3

Acts 9:36-39

Bible - Maxine wanted to hear plain, gospel preaching in her old age. She said she loved my
