Notes

Title: “For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of Jehovah, who spake unto Jehovah the words of this song in the day that Jehovah delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: and he said,” See 2 Samuel 22:1 for the same words. Psalm 18 and 2 Samuel 22 are identical with some variation in wording.

Verses 1-50: This psalm discusses the Lord’s deliverance of the psalmist from his enemies. A number of divine qualities are revealed in this psalm: the Lord hears (verses 3-6), rebukes (verses 7-15), delivers (verses 16-19), rewards (verses 20-27), strengthens (verses 28-39), subdues (verses 40-45), and exalts (verses 46-48).

Verses 1-2: Note the eight “my” statements in these two verses (see also verses 6, 21, 28, 29, and 46). The Lord is: “my strength,” “my rock” (twice), “my fortress,” “my deliverer,” “my God,” “my shield,” “my salvation,” and “my high tower”. Six of these figures relate to military strength and provision (see verses 29, 34, and 39 for mention of military activity). “My stay” is also found in verse 18.

Verse 2: The key metaphor of God as a “rock” is found twice here and in verses 31 and 46. The “rock” stands for God’s victorious might and superior strength. “The horn” is also a symbol of strength. It is a reference to the strong horn of a bull who is poised for attack (see Deut. 33:17; 1 Sam. 2:1, 10; Psa. 75:10; 89:17, 24).

Verse 3: The song, “I Will Call Upon the Lord” (Michael O’Shields, 1981), is based on this verse. The chorus of this song is taken from verse 46.

Verses 4-6: Compare the psalmist’s words here with those of Jonah (Jonah 2:2).
Verse 6: The Lord heard the psalmist “out of his temple”, i.e., out of heaven (see Psa. 11:4; 20:6).

Verse 10: A “cherub” is a winged angel who ministers to God (see Ezekiel 9-10).

Verses 7-19: The psalmist uses the vivid language of a “theophany” (God appearing to man) to announce God’s dynamic appearance and awesome power to deliver him from his enemies (see verses 47 and 48). God’s actions from heaven to deliver the psalmist are here likened unto great forces of nature, like an earthquake and a storm. Compare the poetic and highly figurative language used here with the song of Deborah in Judges 5:1-5 and the prayer of Habakkuk in Habakkuk 3:1-19.

Verse 28: “Light my candle” and “enlighten my darkness” (KJV) are references to keeping the psalmist alive and delivered from his enemies.

Verse 49: This verse (or 2 Sam. 22:50) is quoted by Paul in Romans 15:9 in reference to Jesus’ saving work among Jews and the Gentiles.

Verse 50: “Loving-kindess” (Heb. hesed) is common in the psalms. It is God’s steadfast love for mankind (see the notes on Psa. 5:7). “Anointed” (Heb. mashiach or messiah) is a reference to David anointed as a king (see the notes on Psa. 2:2). Here is one of a few times in the psalms where the name of David is actually mentioned in the text and not just in the title (see also Psa. 72:20; 78:70; 89:3, 20, 35, 49; 122:5; 132:10-11, 17; 144:10). Jesus Christ is the “seed” of David (Rom. 1:3; 2 Tim. 2:8).

2. Like the psalmist we can say, The Lord is “my strength, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer, my God, my shield, my salvation, and my high tower” (verses 1-2 and 46). What is the Lord to the Christian (Heb. 13:6)?

3. In times of distress, we like the psalmist, can cry and call upon the Lord (verses 3-6). Who does the Lord hear (Psa. 34:15; 1 Pet. 3:12)? Who does the Lord not hear (Prov. 21:13; Ezek. 8:18)?

4. The Lord will always reward people “according to” their works (verses 20-27). What does Paul write about this (Rom. 2:6-11; 2 Tim. 4:14)? What does John write about this (Rev. 2:23; 20:12-13)?
